HPAIR ASIA CONFERENCE 2025

Reinventing Vitality:
Momentum and Memory

August 20-24, 2025

Dear University Partners,

We're excited to invite your students or members to apply for the Harvard Project for Asian and International Relations (HPAIR) Asia Conference 2025, taking place August 20–24 in Tokyo, Japan, co-hosted with the University of Tokyo.

HPAIR is a student-led organization at Harvard University, established in 1991. We host two annual international conferences that bring together university students, young professionals, and global leaders to discuss some of the most important political, economic, social, and technological issues facing the Asia-Pacific region and the world. Over the past 30+ years, we've welcomed thousands of delegates from 60+ countries to engage in dialogue with Nobel laureates, UN officials, founders of Fortune 500 companies, and thought leaders across sectors.

We believe your organization cultivates the kind of ambitious, globally minded individuals who would thrive at HPAIR. Many of our most passionate delegates—and even members of our organizing team—were introduced to HPAIR through student organizations or universities that value international engagement and cross-disciplinary learning.

We would love to offer a group rate to your students and members and build a lasting relationship between your university and Harvard. If you'd like to discuss the group rate or explore a more formal partnership, such as promotional support, custom info sessions, or long-term collaboration, we'd be happy to set up a Zoom call to go over the details. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out, and we'll be happy to assist.

This year's theme, "Reinventing Vitality: Momentum and Memory," explores how societies reconcile innovation with tradition. Delegates will choose from curated tracks like geopolitics, entrepreneurship, sustainability, and cultural identity, engaging through:

- Keynotes and panels with globally recognized speakers from academia, business, and government
- Interactive workshops and case competitions
- Cross-cultural networking with delegates from over 60 countries
- Time to explore Tokyo with a global cohort of emerging changemakers
